Big Rail Shipment.

A private business message received from an eastern agency today stated that twelve thousand tons of rails were to be shipped to El Paso, and the query naturally is, who are these rails for? It is claimed they are for the White Oaks road rather than the Corralitos, as the latter road is shipping its rails via Tampico. With the White Oaks road started, El Paso is bound to boom.

house last night in Trinity from l Timothy IV: 8, "For bod:ly exercise profiteth little; but God:incss is profit able unto all things." In his openii prayer, the preacher depracated the cruel and abominable sport built fighting that had opened up that day in this vicinity, and prayed that the young people might be influenced against any countenancing of this sort of thing. In his discourse the speaker said, the principal thing with many these days cems to be how to get rich. Paul says to Timothy tell those people over there that bodily exercise, the mere temporal things of this world, profileth little; for the Jews thought that by the work of their hands they could acchieve salvation. So the apostle was anxious that Tamothy should show it was Godliness rather than bodily work that availed a man. To many people Godtiness is a dead language, but to the chr stian it is a living language. Tell me what loveliness is and I will tell you what Godliness is. We are Godly when we appreciate God and try to be like him. When we admire God we are Godly. The mere knowledge of God does not mean sa vation, for even the devils believe and tremble. We must know bim spiritually. Godliness is grace and love of God in the soul. We can not be godly and sit by idly. Godliness means obedience to Go1 in this life. The speaker caused a smile here by remarking that if a man's wife said he was a Christian he was very llable to

The speaker said in part: We are not to be merely contemplative in the christian life. The christian again yesterday at both services, and should be an active factor in life, and this scripture in Peter outlines the outhway of general endeavor as well as those lines of experience coming more directly from God. This adding to your faith is putting things into a through courage; it is the heart of a man putting himself forward or Christ; and who gives the devil no place in his life. Add to virtue, knowledge. We must possess sanct fled powers of body, mind and soul for Christ; all with a view to the unfoldng of the glories of God. A man hould lose no time, but should give as much of it as he can to the cause of his maker. Add to knowledge, temperance. There are other things temperate besides refraining from drunkenness. There is temperateness in language, in temper and other things. And to Godliness, charity, and brotherly kindness, to love.
